Applicant's Declaration:
Attempted NDAEB Exam Registration

College of Alberta Dental Assistants

Use this form to make an applicant's declaration to the College if:

- you graduated from a dental assisting program that is accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of Canada,
- you are applying for provisional registration and dental assisting practice rights with the College, and
- you attempted to register for the next available National Dental Assisting Examining Board (NDAEB) examination (exam) and the exam is full or registration is currently unavailable.

You must submit this completed Applicant's Declaration: Attempted NDAEB Exam Registration with your registration application. In the online application, when you are asked to include a copy of your letter from the NDAEB that confirms your exam date, upload this completed form.
